

Declaration of Compliance

Formica® Group Europe

ROHS Compliance Statement

This statement confirms that all equipment imported by Formica Group is fully compliant with RoHS (The Restriction of Certain Hazardous Substances) European Directive 2011/65/EU and the restrictions on hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (EEE) under RoHS directives.

We hereby declare that all components imported by Formica Group are affixed with an indelible CE mark and EU declaration of conformity to confirm compliance with ROHS directive.

Formica Group is not a distributor of equipment into the market place and therefore has no obligations with regards to RoHS directives in this sense. But will continue to monitor suppliers who manufacture and supply equipment to Formica to ensure compliance.

Supplier CE marking and EU declaration of conformity confirm the 10 restricted substances and their limits as per the RoHS Directive 2011/65/EU Article 4, Annex 2, are compliant to the directive.

Formica Ltd will continue to monitor RoHS legislation to ensure continued compliance.
